Chapter 1 by Tracey Louise Vanspall

they met through her training his ex girlfriends dog,she was in a crazy busy world.Training and attending dog shows,with her useless partner,he was on his way out,he did not know it yet,but she had had enough of him.She had been a semi successful life.Her partner was lazy hatefully mean and was wrecking all her hard work.She was severely ill but was not aware as to wh why.

One busy day in summer,she was asked by a so called friend to take a pup who needed training.She met the owners and felt a good connection with the woman,They became friends and chatted to each other about life and where they were in their lives,she agreed to go to her new friends house to asses the dogs home life and there he stood 6 ft tall, long strong legs ,slim build and a short cropped head of black hair,then she raised her head to look him in the face.OH!,he is just so attractive he had one blue eye,one blue green,hypnotising and very kind.
